

WWWP Policy and Procedure Manual

Chapter 3 - Eligibility and Enrollment Rev. 2/01/06

Client Eligibility

A woman wishing to enroll in the Wisconsin Well Woman Program must meet the residence and revised age eligibility requirements below and must meet all other eligibility requirements described in the WWWP Policy and Procedure Manual:

<http://dhfs.wisconsin.gov/womenshealth/wwwp/PolicyandProceduresManual.htm>

1. Age and Residence

Revised 2/01/06

A woman must be a current resident of Wisconsin.

Eligible for WWWP	Yes/No	WWWP Covered Services & per insurance status	Treatment Resources
45-64 years	Yes	All covered services per WWWP screening guidelines (breast & cervical cancer, and multiple sclerosis testing. Expanded screenings until 6/30/06).	WWWMA for breast or cervical cancer and if meet criteria. MS treatment free or reduced cost by MS Center.
≥ 65 years if - Not eligible for Medicare, or - Can't afford Medicare Part B	Yes	All WWWP covered services as above.	No WWWWMA MS treatment as above
35-44 years and need testing for multiple sclerosis (per WWWP Staged Assessment for MS)	Yes	MS staged assessment and all other WWWP covered services as above.	MS treatment WWWMA if meet criteria
LIMITED EXCEPTIONS for 2006: For women 35-44 years, and Must be enrolled by WWWP Coordinators*		WWWP Covered Services for 2006 & per insurance status	Treatment Resources
Currently enrolled and re-enrollment date between 2/1/06 and 12/31/06. Coordinators must re-enroll 2005 re-enrollment "lapses" by 3/31/06.	Yes	All WWWP covered services per WWWP screening guidelines (breast & cervical cancer, and MS testing. Expanded screenings until 6/30/06).	WWWMA if meet criteria MS treatment
On Medicaid Family Planning Waiver and: - FPW provider referral after abnormal clinical breast exam, or - Woman reports breast symptoms to Local Coordinator	Yes, but	WWWP covered breast cancer diagnostic services only. No cervical or expanded services. MS testing if high risk.	WWWMA if meet criteria MS treatment

LIMITED EXCEPTIONS for 35-44 years, continued:	Yes/No	WWWP Covered Services	Treatment Resources
Not on Medicaid FPW and: - Woman reports breast symptoms to Local Coordinator.	Yes, but	WWWP covered breast cancer diagnostic services only. No cervical or expanded services. MS testing if high risk.	WWWMA if meet criteria MS treatment

 Enrollment for “Limited Exceptions” will only be accepted from WWWP Local Coordinators. For women who meet the eligibility criteria as a “limited exception” for 2006, WWWP Coordinators should follow the instructions for enrollment listed in the “February 23, 2006 Question & Answer” document.

 Breast symptoms are defined as:

- Breast lump (or palpable mass), or
- Bloody or serous nipple discharge, or
- Breast skin changes (dimpling, retraction, redness), or
- Nipple or areolar scaliness

(Distributed June 2006)